

SPEND A DAY WITH THE BIRD MAN

Tour a breeding farm, a petting zoo, and get a $500 shopping spree at OMAR'S!

For the true bird aficionado, here's your chance to spend an entire day chatting about your passion for parrots with an expert aviculturist and one of the most respected people in the bird biz. This is one of those rare opportunities that's just too good to pass up.

You are bidding on a PRIZE PACKAGE for you and a guest to meet up with OMAR GONZALEZ as he spends his day making rounds with his wife Carolyn at their exotic bird stores, 300-animal petting zoo and countryside breeding farm.

To begin your day of animal encounters, you will be picked up in their Hyacinth Mobile, where you will head straight to OMAR'S BREEDING RESORT in the heart of Temecula's wine country. This is a closed aviary and not open to the public—a once in a lifetime opportunity as you will get to see hundreds of pairs of rare and exotic parrots. Omar will share with you his breeding philosophies and show you some first-ever breeding techniques that he is now experimenting with.

Around noon, you'll head just down the road to Wilson Creek Winery for a little wine tasting. To celebrate your winning bid, you will be treated to a bottle of their signature Almond Champagne... a gold-medal winner and sure to be the best you've ever tasted! From there, you and your guest will be taken to lunch at "The Vineyard Rose" in South Coast Winery, wine country's newest, five-star restaurant.

Next stop? ZOOMARS! Here at this enchanting 1800s petting zoo in historic San Juan Capistrano, you'll see llamas, lambs, alpaca, miniature horses, cashmere goats, an adorable donkey, 100 bunnies, and yes, even more birds—everything from Eclectus to Emus. You'll receive a VIP zoo pass, good for the year, and a $250 birthday package to celebrate the special day of a little one you know. Your party pack will include admission for 30 guests, pony rides for the kids and 15 tickets to ride the miniature zoo train.

After your zoo experience, you'll be taken to the OMAR'S EXOTIC BIRD STORE of your choice where you'll splurge on birdie delights with a $500 SHOPPING SPREE as Omar helps you choose all the right stuff for your feathered friend.

What an incredible day! And during your fun-filled outing, you'll get to pick Omar's brain with all your birdie questions, get tips on training and hear his advice on behavioral matters.

Don't pass this up. Bid now, be a winner, book your bird excursion and help support the generous efforts of Parrots International.

100% of the winning bid will be donated to Parrots International, a non-profit organization whose mission is to develop, promote and fund conservation projects for birds in the wild. The winner will be announced at the Parrots International Symposium on May 7th.
